THE MEANING OF THANKSGIVING

Records give no indication that the first autumn harvest festival celebrated by the Pilgrim Fathers in America was set aside for giving thanks. It was merely a day of feasting and rejoicing enjoyed by both the colonists and the Indians. This harvest feast day, however, gradually evolved into a day of thanksgiving. At first it was almost exclusively a New England custom but it spread to other sections, and in 1864 President Lincoln set aside the last Thursday in November as a day of national thanksgiving. Last year President Roosevelt set Thanksgiving Day back a week, although in some states it is still the last Thursday in November.

It sometimes seems that Thanksgiving has again become only the feast day that it was formerly.

Often we are too complacent and self-satisfied, and do not stop to think that we, as Americans, possess some of the things which very few other people in the world today have. Let us be most thankful on this Thanksgiving Day for our freedom of thought and action, and for our wide range of opportunity in a land of peace and plenty. Let us try to merit these blessings, let us sincerely thank God for America, and ask Him to protect her.

WHAT THANKSGIVING MEANS TO ME

Boyd Blumer--I've got troubles, but who hasn't? Somebody once said life is  $\frac{3}{4}$  sorrow and  $\frac{1}{4}$  happiness. Well, I'm thankful I am able to put in my  $\frac{1}{4}$ .

Ilene Fuller--Thanksgiving Day means to me a time to be thankful that I can celebrate an old American custom, far from war-torn Europe.

Phyllis Christiansen--Thanksgiving means to me that we can have a nice long vacation with plenty to eat. And it also means that we can go to see some of our old friends.

Merrill Hess--To me Thanksgiving means a time to be thankful that we are able to get an education, live in a comfortable home, and be far from the horrors of war.

Neil Smith---Thanksgiving means that we have our first school vacation of the year. It also means a turkey dinner, and perhaps ice-skating.

Blanche Babcock--Thanksgiving is the day of the year that we should set aside to express our gratitude for the many blessings we have received throughout the year.

Charles Merrick---Thanksgiving's a day set aside to thank God for our food and clothing, and homes, and all the other things He has given us during the past year.

Janie Duncan----Thanksgiving means that the family can all be together once more, and that everyone is in a happy spirit, such as the Pilgrims had when they established the custom.

Lorraine Stalcup-----This Thanksgiving means to me time to give thanks for my home, family, and friends. This year I am especially thankful for the privilege of living in a free land and being an American.

Everyone--Six days vacation!

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scouts and their Captain, Miss Cora Ellingson, have been specially active this fall.

In addition to the variety of pleasures provided at the meetings the Girl Scouts observed Girl Scout Week, October 27 to November 1, and climaxed their work with the Mother-Daughters banquet, October 30. Now they are making plans for a Christmas party.

The Girl Scouts sold Girl Scout cookies, and netted $10.36. At the Roof Garden, the restaurant sponsored by the Girl Scouts at the carnival, they netted $19.11. The Girl Scouts are grateful to their mothers for helping at the Roof Garden.

Janet Lees is a new Girl Scout.

Excluding the Senior Girls who are Sub-Debs, the Second-Class Girl Scouts are Vivian Huber, Lois Jean Stalcup, Amaryllis Ehlers, Blanche Neumann, Joyce Evans, Beverly Ortnier, Marilyn Pfeifer, Lillian Benderwald, Eunice Walker, Delores Greene, Delia Whelan, Patricia Holmes, and Phyllis Lile.

HAVE YOU DONE YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING?

SENIOR BAND

The band is improving steadily under the new director, Mr. Ackert. During the last six weeks Mr. Ackert has introduced many new ideas and methods that have helped us. He has distributed a time sheet to each member of the band asking them to practice 30 minutes a day. This record, signed by our parents, will be handed in at the close of the six weeks' period.

The members are working harder than ever since they heard the United States Navy Band. It was a great help to hear this band because it answered many of the questions on band music and also gave pointers on how to improve.

Having the twirlers at the head of the marching band has been an attraction that has improved the appearance of the band one hundred per cent. The band has marched in the N.I. Homecoming parade at the half of the game.

The band also led our own E. H. S. Color Day parade and the parade for the Oompah Carnival. A part of the band played a fanfare for the coronation of the Oompah queen: trumpets-Neil Smith, Jacques Roland, Monty Brouillard, and Donald Juberg; trombones-John Blumer and Alden Johnson; drums-Phyllis Fleming and Malcolm Goddard.

A pep band was organized to pep up the football boys at games. Those in the pep band are Neil Smith, Jacques Roland, Ilene Fuller, Phyllis Christiansen, John Blumer, Alden Johnson, Inga Martin, Eunice DuRand, Kenneth Isack, Phyllis Fleming, Lois Coleman, Malcolm and Patty Goddard.

All of these activities were supervised by Mr. Ackert. The band fully appreciates this supervision and is looking forward to the basketball games.

THE TWIRLERS

The twirlers under their new director, Mr. Floyd Ackert, have been learning new tricks and perfecting the former ones. Recently practice has been concentrated on aerial work and under-the-leg throws. This fall the twirlers have been introduced to field work. With the band, the twirlers have polished up their marching; the art of turning corners was stressed.

This fall the twirlers include Lois Merrick, majorette; Dorothy Neer, Marilyn Bowerman, Lorraine Stalcup, and Ethel Johnson, twirlers. This group is smaller than last year's because two of the girls, Marjorie Meachen and Gene Wolfe graduated.

The twirlers are working to get new uniforms, boots, and caps for the basketball games. You'll want to see our twirling team at the basketball games this winter!

--Ethel Johnson

HI-Y

Because of last year's inactivity, the Hi-Y this year is going to do big things. Watch these boys!

Doug-"I passed your house yesterday."
Shirley Guss-"Thanks."

GLEE CLUBS AND CHORUS

The girls' glee club consists of about sixty voices. This year a number of girls can't practice at one time; therefore there are two groups. On Tuesday and Thursday of every week one group practices at 8:30, the other group at 11:15.

The new members from junior high are as follows: Joyce Evans, Phyllis Christiansen, Dorothy Schmidt, Judith Gessmer, Esther West, Frances Tuchscher, Esther Spicdel, Shirley Near, Phyllis Johnson, Adeline Klipfel, Marion Durheim, and Luella Hokena.

The boys' glee club meets every Monday and Wednesday. Up to the present time they have been reading bass and tenor parts. The new members from junior high include: Kenny Muske, Keith Sehnert, Robert Coleman, Ernest King, Clayton Voegeli, David Steinwand, Lelin Miller, Orson Boudier, Francis Gibson, Wendell Lile, William Randall, Orrin Morrow, Calvin Mattheis, and Allen Mac Donald.

The mixed chorus meets every Friday. Now we are working for the Christmas Program, which will be on Thursday, December 19.

On Friday, November 1, the student enjoyed a community sing in the new gymnasium. The selections were made by Miss Buck.

Our accompanists this year are Patricia Goddard and Phyllis Fleming. Phyllis replaces Leona Heimke.

—Helen Holmberg

THIRTY SHOPPING DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

SUB-DEBS

What is the Sub-Deb Club? The Sub-Deb club is a nation-wide organization that is sponsored by the Ladies Home Journal to create clubs for teen-age girls. The purpose of this organization is to teach girls how to be more friendly, how to find new interests, how to do things in a nicer way, and to "think of others first."

Who are the Sub-Debs? This year the Senior Girl Scouts have joined this club. They are learning new things of interest to young girls and have a good time at their meetings, which are held on Tuesday evening at the homes of the club members. Members of the Sub-Deb Club are Eunice DuRand, Ilene Fuller, Lorraine Gibson, Ethel Johnson, Eva King, Lois Merrick, Dorothy Murray, Ruth Ofstedal, Ruby Sprouse, Lorraine Stalcup, Virginia Whelan, and Miss Williams, our leader.

What is their motto? The Sub-Debs have officially adopted "Further Fun" as their motto.

What do they do to live up to their motto? The "Sub-Debs" have fun at their meetings and learn interesting things at the same time.

—Lorraine Gibson

BOY SCOUTS

This fall the Boy Scouts and their leader, Coach Ehlers, have had several outings. The boys are working hard to gain merit badges and higher rank. Several of the boys attended the Boy Scout Round-Up at Oakes.

SPEECH WORK

There have been several successful speech programs this fall under the direction of Miss Minnie C. Onsrud. The first was held on Constitution Day. Those who gave talks were Phyllis Fleming—"The History of Our Constitution;" Doris Bolstad—"What the Constitution Means to Us Today;" Owen Amphlett—"A Portion of Washington's Farewell Address"

On October 24, the senior girls put on their annual speech program, and every girl in the senior class had a part in it. There were plays, skits, readings, and piano solos.

There will be more speech work after the holidays, including work on the Masonic Oratorical Contest.
